Virgil Dockens has been down about two weeks with typhoid fever.

Miss Susie Allen, of Memphis, Tennessee, is visiting the family of Mr. J. J. Thompson, just south west of McKinney.

Miss Anna Lou Shirley is the guest of Miss Ona Cameron in McKinney while attending the normal.

J. T. Craver a dyed-in-the-wool Climax populist called on The Democrat Monday.

Mrs. C. B. Moore of Chambersville visited in McKinney, one day last week.

Miss Pet Tussey has returned to her home at Weston after a few days visit to the family of Mr. D. A. Crouch in this city.

Mrs. Wess Goodin and little babe, of Coalgate, I. T. are visiting the family of Mr. D. Goodin in this city.

Mrs. Tom Muse left Thursday for a week's visit to friends in Valley View.

Mr. George Galloway, of Farmersville, was in McKinney the 1st.

Thanks to Rogers & Stiff, McKinney's rustling liverymen, for a year's subscription to The Democrat.

Presley Duncan has returned from Baylor university where he has been attending the summer normal.

Miss Anna Brooke arrived home Saturday from an extended visit with Corsicana friends.

Mrs. Eliza Gordon, of Terrel, is in the city attending the bedside of her son, Lester Gordon, who is sick with slow fever.

Mr. T. M. Derrick, of Climax, was in McKinney the 1st. He called on The Democrat and advanced cash for a renewal of subscription for his father in Englewood, Tennessee.

The Democrat has a rustling corps of correspondents, scattered promiscuously everywhere over the county, of whom we are proud. To them we say, continue zealous and be punctual and not only will The Democrat management appreciate your assistance but your community will bless you.

J. E. Cogburn has our thanks for cash on subscription.

Ben Morton is cutting meat at Clardy & Davis' meat market.

S. E. McChesney, J. P. Dowell's popular book-keeper, left Sunday for a month's visit to his old home, Frankfort Kentucky.

W. H. O'Kelly and family of Rockwall county were in McKinney Saturday. The Democrat acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. O'Kelly.

There will be a grand picnic at Kendrick Grove one-half mile west of Plano, Thursday August 15. Public speaking will be one of the features of the day.

W. C. Robinson has returned from a two weeks pleasure jaunt through Denton, Wise and Jack counties. While gone Will visited his parents at Stony, Denton county.

Editor F. C. Thompson and wife, of McKinney, who have been visiting relatives here, have gone to Ardmore, I. T. on a visit to friends.—Sherman Register.

R. E. Carpenter, manager of Parlin & Orendorff Co's branch establishment in McKinney, says that as a result of advertising in The Democrat, a machine which they usually keep in stock in their local houses, he has disposed of all these particular articles on hands and also that his wholesale house can furnish him for the season. So he orders the ad out as it is continually eliciting responses which he cannot fill, from the farmers of Collin, Hunt and Fannin counties. Moral—Advertise in The Democrat if you wish to do a flourishing business.

TAKE DOWN YOUR FENCES.

Take this advice and your home will look considerably better, especially on the streets where Marshal Burks has improved with terraces. There are no cows on the streets. No one wants to trespass on your grass.

A pretty terrace with grass and no fence is by far more pleasing to the eye than the hemmed in appearance of a fence. Look at Dr. Metz's and Crouch's places since their fences have been removed.

IMMENSE JULY RAINFALL.

Mr. C. B. Moore, of Advalorem, six miles north of McKinney, has been favoring The Democrat for a number of years with the monthly rainfall as kept by himself. In his report of last month's precipitation Mr. Moore says, "The rainfall of July, 1895, is so extraordinary that I give you the July rainfalls of each year from 1881 up to this time.

"The average, leaving out this year, has been 2 6-10 inches, about one-sixth of this July's rain. And this year's fall has been about three times as great as 1891, the greatest till now.

ALTOGETHER PROPER.

Near McKinney last week a man was seen driving a mule dressed up for protection against the flies. On the mules hind legs were a pair of pants and on the front legs a pair of drawers. The latter seemed to fit perfectly but the pants bagged fearfully at the knees though at the same time giving good service.

Everyone should keep his stock protected from the terrible horse fly now so prevalent. One party reports his best mule as having all the hair taken off the legs and it will likely die. Protect your stock!

BASE BALL.

The first of the series of three games between the Oak Cliff Brownies and the local Seconds, last week, was a decided walkover for the home boys. Though the score ran high the game was interesting from start to finish, first one then the other in the lead. The feature of the game was a home run by Oates. Score: Dallas, 15; McKinney, 23.

The visitors were successful in second game until the sixth inning the score was small and a good game was looked for, but both sides bunched hits in the latter part of the game and consequently piled up runs. A large number of ladies were out to see the second game. Score: Dallas, 19; McKinney, 17.

The third game belonged to McKinney from the start. Score: Dallas, 6; McKinney, 22.

Will Duncan is no better at this writing.

Mr. Henley Jones and family, of White's Grove, visited Mr. John Turner Sunday.

Miss Minnie Johnson visited in our community Saturday night and Sunday. CENTRAL

STATE FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

Shiloh, Denton Co., Tex., July 29.—To the citizens of Texas: The next State Farmers' alliance convenes in the city of Lampasas on the morning of Aug. 20, 1895. The executive committee of the Farmers' alliance, knowing the alliance to be non-partisan and members were seeking for information, we invited the sound money faction, the free silver faction and the populists to select one of their ablest advocates to address the public during the said state alliance meeting. We have a response from the sound money men and populists, but none yet from the free silverites, but hope they will respond.

The hour set for each is Aug. 21 at 2 p. m., which will be filled by the Hon. George Clark of Waco, representing sound money. Aug. 22 at 2 p. m. is for the free silver man, and we hope he will be on hand. Aug. 23 at 2 p. m. will be filled by the Hon. T. L. Nugent of Ft. Worth, representing the populists. We ask all papers to copy this as we expect to have this triangular debate conducted honorably and without any personalities.

The railroads have given the following rates: 4 cents per mile up to 75 miles for the round trip, over 75 and under 100 miles $3, and over 100 miles one fare for the round trip, tickets on sale Aug. 19, good to Aug. 26. Ample provisions have been made to entertain visitors at reasonable rates, so come, listen and learn.

C. A. McMEANS,
Sec. Ex. Com. F. S. A. of Texas.

AN OPEN LETTER.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE M'KINNEY GAZETTE.

Dear sir:—

The time has passed when you can successfully straddle the financial question.

In other words, the chickens are weaned.

Starvation and rags have driven them home to the populists to roost.

They are speaking out and declaring that they will go with the populist in preference to the gold bugs and bond robbing Cleveland.

Now Clint I worked with you, I know your heart is right and honest and that you are for free and unlimited coinage at 16 to 1, but you are trying to carry your gold bug Bailey as you did gold bug Mills. You now denounce Mills as a traitor. Every reading man knows that Mills was a Clevelandite and gold bug before he was elected to the senate. Now let us notice Mills, plan of destroying silver. He says he wants an international convention to determine at what ratio silver shall be coined. Some honor in that. If they destroy silver it will hurt them as badly as us.

Bailey's plan is that it shall be left to the gold bugs to say what the ratio shall be to place at a parity with gold. Bailey says 16 to 1, 18 to 1, 19 to 1, 20 to 1, and cut and cut her down until you do put silver on a parity with gold. Who is to do that work? The gold bugs. Haven't they already declared silver to be a commodity redeemable with gold. If silver were cut down to a ratio of 32 to 1, doesn't every sensible man know that mining in the United States would be at an end? There are only 35,000,000, of silver mined annually in the United States.

The arts are using practically all of this, so I consider Bailey's plan of silver a sure and shorter death to the white metal than Mills' plan.

It is said that Bailey is a candidate against Mills for senator. If it comes to either one or the other give me Mills.

I would rather have a gold bug solid, out and out than to have a gold bug with silver wings.

Now Clint if the above statement is not true correct it. You tell us in one breath that you wont vote for a gold bug in the next election you tell us you are going into the primaries with the gold bugs, both state and national. Your two leaders, Bailey and Sherrell say if the gold bugs have a majority in the primaries you must take your medicine, stick to your party and die rather than to go with honest silver and live.

Are you going to humiliate principle to your party lash?

JOHN JOHNSON.

McKinney, Tex., Aug. 3, '95.

OPEN LETTER TO REAGAN.

He is Invited to Completely Sever His Connection With Democracy.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 1.—Hon. John H. Reagan: Dear sir—Seeing that the democratic press has denounced you for uttering sentiments in harmony with the principles of the people's party I am moved to address you an open letter in the hope that what I intend to write will remove the scales which blind you to the inconsistency of further affiliation with a mere political party whose platforms mean not what they say nor say what they mean.

You with us believe that the daily press of the country is either subsidized or is controlled by capitalists whose interests are at war with reform movements. The democratic and republican party leaders know that we are right on this point, but they seek through sophistry and by veiling public questions in a mysticism of terms and language to delude the rank and file of their followers into the belief that political questions are too abtruse for popular solution; that able editors and politicians alone can discern political truths or unravel economic problems. Some of the profoundest editorials I have ever read have been written by men who were convinced of the truth of propositions the vary contrary of those advocated in their able articles. These are paid to write, and they hire their talent to propagate doctrines, whose ultimate trend is to betray the people and bury human liberty.

One of your severest critics, the daiy paper of this city in a recent issue congratulates the country upon the decision of the venal supreme court in the Debs case and comments with much satisfaction upon the fact that this decision "clothes army officers with new powers, to be exercised in case of strikes and riots, upon their own discretion, without waiting for orders from the chief executive." The democratic journal admits that this is innovation. It terms it "a long step forward." Men of our party believe that such a departure from the spirit and intent of our fathers is a long step backward toward the despotism which caused the revolution and made our forefathers fight against a tyranny which "quartered soldiers among the people." This able democratic journal goes on to argue that this "long step forward" is not only necessary, but right in order to secure a strong government over the people.

This attitude of the Post, however, is not a surprise to those who read in its columns an indorsement of The Temple Tribune in its avowal that the declaration of independence was a lie so far as it declared that all men are born free and equal and had certain inalienable rights, etc., and the Post quotes Rufus Choate to show that the declaration of independence was filled with "incongruous generalities." This great daily but reflects the animus of its contemporaries of democratic and republican proclivities. Can any thinking man doubt where such advocates would have stood when the fires of liberty were burning in 1776? They would have been with Tarleton's tories or slinking noncombatants, awaiting the issue of a struggle they were too mean to sustain, or too cowardly to resist.

We know where Judge Reagan would have stood and there is no question that the platform of our party is a second declaration of independence fitted to the times. The question is where will Reagan and these democrats who believe in a government of the people as against the plutocrats and their daily press stand when the money power will come into the democratic conventions of the country and shape their platforms in the interest of all that is advocated by these papers which you so justly denounce as being subservient to capitalism? I believe that you would never have pushed your inter-state commerce bill through congress if you had dreamed that its enactment into law would have given a pretext to a tyrant to use military power to shoot down citizens upon his own notion. The democratic party upholds this act of despotism. Its press glories in it as a long step in the right direction.

Can you, whom we have delighted to honor as the impersonation of pure American citizenship, coupled with the statsmanship of the highest order, afford to affiliate with the self confessed enemies of liberty, denouncers of that instrument of writing whose signers have become canonized and their names enshrined upon the altar of human liberty? You cannot afford to cloud the evening of a life which has been so spent that its record is surrounded by a halo reflected from the affections of a people who hope that when the test will come you will cast aside the ties of party association, the delusive expectation of in-tra party reform, the tender memories which attach to its many bestowals of office and join the only party which stands for liberty against plutocracy, for first principles against the multiplied evils of corrupt legislation.

If democracy has honored you it was for adherence to principle, not for feality to organization. Where organization has divorced from principle, your duty is plain. We have 160,000 old democrats in our ranks who left the old organization and followed those principles we inherited and which the daily press now denounce. You cannot afford to keep away from us in the camp of our enemy and, yours and countenance the attempts to fasten upon us the evils of gold monometalism, and its attendant monopolies, and engraft upon our country the worst features of landlordism and transportation abuses. Your friends in our ranks will never believe that you will continue such association after the next democratic convention will have shown the usual cloven foot of partyism. Truly yours,

E. P. ALSBURY.

NEWS has just reached England of the brutal killing by the Chinese of eight English missionaries.

FREE silver demmy, if crow gags you, you had better hustle into the camp of your friends—the populists.

JOHN J. INGALLS, the "iridescent dreamer," declared for free coinage of silver in a speech at Caldwell, Kansas.

MRS T. De Witt Talmage died at Danville, N. Y., Aug. 5, of nervous prostration sustained at the burning of the Brooklyn Tabernacle last year.

INSIDE of twelve more months Barlow Bailey will be yelping like a "yaller dog" at the head of the free silver, (?) pack for goldbugism and the party of our daddies!

IF you are for free and unlimited silver at 16 to 1 join the only true exponent of that policy. Don't pretend to be for something and stay in a party that is a mortal enemy to that principle.

EDITOR MURRAY of the Denison Gazeteer says he is in favor of the prize fight at Dallas, provided Fitzsimmons will "beat the stuffing out of Corbett." The editor is justly indignant at the manner in which Corbett put aside his faithful wife.

THE despised Hoke Smith, so obnoxious to many of his own party, is a saint beside many other blatherskites of the democratic patry. Dodger Q. Mills dodges into his hole and pulls the entrance in after him. Crisp scampers off to Europe while Hoke owns up like a man that he has changed his mind. He doesn't be like Carlisle, but pulls off his coat and goes to fighting for his new faith.

POPULIST RALLY AT FT. WORTH AUGUST 5, 6, AND 7 LARGELY ATTENDED.

OMAHA PLATFORM REAFFIRMED WITH APPLAUSE.--NOTABLES PRESENT.

The state rally at Fort Worth Aug. 5, 6 and 7 eclipsed everything hoped for by its most sanguine promotors. The attendance is large and enthusiasm unbounded. The attendance is almost wholly of farmers and other laboring men, a fact which should make the most bitter partisan pause and reflect, when wantonly maligning, as so many of the old party devotees persist in doing, a party whose rank and file are made up of such humble, sturdy membership. In this respect the Dallas News says this populist gathering is in striking contrast with that of the free silver democrats in session in the same city. While a large majority of the latter may be safely addressed as "Colonel," "Major," "Captain," or "Judge," not so with the former, for plain and old-time mister is almost exclusively in use there.

Early Monday Morning covered wagons began to roll into the park where the encampment was held and soon the shaded groves were alive with the hardy farmers, many of whom came from remote parts of our great state. Business seemed to shine in every countenance and all were bent on hearing the speaking.

The encampment proper was opened shortly after noon, Monday, by Judge S. O. Moody, of Fort Worth, who delivered the address of welcome and was responded to by Prof. J. G. H. Buck, of Hillsboro. The feature of the night session was Judge Nugent's speech who prefaced his remarks by stating that the cause of populism had at last set free human thought in Texas. He made a great speech and was constantly interrupted by tumultuous applause.

Hon W. M. Walton was surrounded by an eager throng immediately upon his arrival, Tuesday and, tendered an ovation that clearly demonstrated the popularity of this ex-school horse of Texas democracy, who boldly renounced and denounced his party a few months ago. He closed his speech with these patriotic words:

"Populists of Texas, you are right, the constitution covers you. Justice is in your right hand, truth crowns your rugged brows and in your left is the flag of peace, prosperity and brotherly love. Stand by your guns. We are making the last stand for the liberty, the rights and the freedom of the common people as against combined capital and the merciless money power. Stand to your guns and victory is yours. (Prolonged applause.)

Continuing, Major Walton said: "I love Judge Reagan and I honor him because he is an old Roman, but let the gold standard be adopted by the democratic party and you will find my friend, the old war horse, talking for gold But I will not believe it. He is the friend of the people and if you trample further on the principles of the people he will aid the people in revolt and die or kick out of the traces."

Gen. James B. Weaver, of Iowa, spoke Tuesday afternoon and a letter from Senator Wm. M. Stewart, of Nevada, was read. A letter written by Eugene V. Debs in Woodstock prison for the occasion was read Tuesday night by James Hindman and also a letter from the venerable Lyman Trumbull was read, a passage of which declares "The doctrine announced by the supreme court in the Debs case, carried to its logical conclusion, places every citizen at the mercy of any prejudiced or malicious federal judge who may think proper to imprison him."

Chas. H. Jenkins, the audacious little populist, aroused great enthusiasm after the reading of the above letters by giving the record of the democratic party on the silver question.

The following interviews appear in yesterday's News:

Bill Farmer sasys: "I have been pretty much over the entire state, and everywhere we are gaining ground. To-day our party has a clear majority in the state, and we will, without doubt, elect our ticket next year. Let me tell you, the time is mighty near here when these so-called free silver democratic leaders are going to wake up to a knowledge of the fact that the masses of the people are with us. The people are rapidly awakening to the fact if we are ever going to have any reform it must come through the people's party.

"Say," asked he, "did you ever see so many office-seekers and office-holders together in your life as there are at the free silver democratic convention, so-called? Why, it would be far more appropriate if those fellows would come out and announce to the people the plain truth, that it is the largest gathering of almost chronic and exclusitvely office-holders ever seen in Texas. I believe that 96 per cent of the men here to attend that convention are right now figuring on an office. It is enough to disgust the honest voters who want reform to look at that crowd."

Hon W. R. Lamb of Bowie says: "We have everything pretty much our own way in the panhandle. Last year we snowed under a great lot of the panhandle pie-eaters, and next year we will wipe out the rest."

President Mallett of the stock Reform Press association says: "In Parker county we are in the majority and next year are going to repeat our action of last year; that is, knock the democrats out again."

Hon. Charles H. Jenkins of Brownwood, who came so near pulling out Congressman Bell's tail feathers, politically speaking, last year, will again next year contest with the candidate of the democracy for congressional honors, is saying but little at present. He is taking in all that transpires, however, and his countenance is illuminated with a smile of absolute satisfaction ominous for the congressional nominee of the democracy in the eighth district next year.

Hon. E. O. Meitzen, one of the latest arrival, says: "In south and southwest Texas the growth of the cause of populism is all most unprecedented. The Germans are reading and fully posting themselves upon the political situation, and another year we are going to poll an enormous vote in that center. I feel safe in saying that our district will nominate a populist candidate for congress in another year, and elect him, too."

Asked as to fusion, he said: "Why, there is no necessity for any fusion. We already have the masses of the people squarely in line with us, and in the name of goodness, I would like to know just what use we have got for that office-seeking crowd of politicians now in convention here."

Hon. O. F. Dornblaser says: "In Johnson county we landed a good part of our ticket last year, and we are going to land it all another year. I tell you, the people are sick and tired of the democratic party's empty promises and meaningless platforms, and they are going to do some repudiating in the very near future."

"Tige" Robinson of Dallas is as usual brimful of enthusiasm and was to be seen at almost every point on the grounds to-day armed with a couple of palmetto fans, busily engaged in umpiring a base ball game the flies were playing on his head.

Hon. R. J. Sledge says: "We have everything in good shape about Waller. The toiling masses who want true reform are flocking to us daily and we are just itching for next year to come around so that we can rout the gang that has brought the people to their present condition."

Dr. G. B. Harris says: "In McLennan county we are keeping in the middle of the road and daily expound the true doctrine to the people. The voters our way are on to the game of these 16 to 1 democratic leaders and will give them a wide berth. Say, all that crowd up town will try to join us another year when they find that the honest people, the people who do the voting are with us."

W. L. Thurman of the Jeffersonian Democrat, Denton, is enthusiastic over the out look and says if a fellow wants a scrap with him, if he is a preacher of the gospel, all he has to do is to talk to him about fusion with the 16 to 1 democrats.

J. B. Daniels of Waco, here representing the Waco News, explained the fact of his gray hairs to a crowd this morning by stating that he was a populist and worked for a democratic paper.

Frank Chancellor of the Comanche Pioneer Exponent says: "We have the people solidly with us for reform in my section and old Comanche is always safe for the populist party." He claims large gains for his party in that section. He is also proud of the fact that the Pioneer Exponent was the first reform paper started in Texas. Said he, "Think of it. That was in 1887 and to-day, eight years later, there are fully 150 reform papers in Texas and new ones being started almost daily."

"We have nothing to gain by fusion and will have none of it. The farmers and laboring men the state over are flocking to us and the state is ours hands down next year." Mr. Chancellor comes from a section where the populists are thick and naturally he is one of the most enthusiastic men on the ground.

Expressions were had from Editor J. S. Bradley of the Abilene Sentinel and others from different sections of the state. In every instance enthusiasm and great satisfaction over the outlook was expressed and in no single instance was a thought of any fusion with the 16 to 1 democrats entertained.

"On all hands were to be heard kindly utterances toward the 16 to 1 democrats in the ranks, but the leaders of this element were strongly denounced. If there was any design in conflicting the two conventions here it has proven abortive and hourly the utter futility of any such attempts at fusing becomes more apparent. There is one thing certain and it is that the populists here assert most confidently that the democratic party in Texas is their meat next year.

"Another significant fact is that all here unite in the stand taken that there is a trio of great questions in which the welfare of the masses lies, viz., silver at 16 to 1 and the land and transportation questions.

These are all considered as of vast importance and it is evident that the impression prevails with many that of the three the land question is the most important.

To-day the presence of quite a contingent of colored voters was noticed. They apparently were much interested in the proceedings to judge from the rapt attention given the speakers.

The last day closed with speeches from ex-Governor Waite, of Colorado, and Senator Peffer, of Kansas. The former's is said to be the strongest of the day.

ROCKWALL.

ROCKWALL, August 5.

To The Democrat:

The picnic at this place Saturday came off on time and with plenty to eat. There was to have been a speaker representing each, the gold standard democrats, the populists, the prohibitionists and free silver democrats.

The gold-bugs and prohibitionists failed to secure a speaker and our speaker failed to come. Mr. Yoakum, of Greenville, represented the free silver democrats, and Mr. Earle, of the Texas Independent, happened to come over in the interest of his paper and the encampment, and kindly represented the populists, and he did so in a plain, forcible manner, too. His speech was well received, and I learn did good, also.

You see the people are wondering why it is that if both old parties have been trying to benefit the country for thirty years that they haven't done it. It does seem that if two men wanted to accomplish a certain thing, that inside of thirty years and more they ought to do something, even if they differed in their methods.

The day of account is here and the people are asking why? why?

Mr. Yoakum acknowledged that things had gone wrong, and gave us the same old stale recital that "We must remember that southern representatives in congress didn't do it." Said that the reason why democrats are splitting up and fighting among themselves is because democracy means freedom, and democrats are free to think, differ, and have differences.

You know that it has been all along that they would tie them up in a primary and they just had to stick:—they didn't have to scratch a ticket made out for them or refuse a drink when offered, but now, now, when the fellows kind o turns his head as much as to say: "will see 'bout that."—Yes now when they see the people are going to exercise a little of this freedom from an individual stand point, they give them great freedom. He differed with Cleveland and he eulogized him. He said the democrats always had opposed a gold standard, but the people see they are trying to saddle it on them. He denied that money is a "creature of law," and gave us the old racket that "if you can print $89 per capita, why not make it $100?" "If you can pay off the public debt, why not pay off private indebtedness?—and then asked "what you going to pay for the railroads with? He gave no remedy for all these things. But the people know that it takes the same authority to designate a dollar on the metal gold or silver that it does to print a one dollar bill, and that the gold or silver is no more money before it is transformed in shape and designated in amount than the paper is before it is printed and designated, and that there is no authority anywhere out side the constitution, given to congress to "coin" money and regulate the value thereof."

It is not what the "Southern representatives in congress" could have done or aught to have done, that the people are looking at, but with every pledge violated, they are asking themselves, what can I predicate hope of expecting anything on, from the democratic party.

T. K. BICKLEY.

GEN. J. B. WEAVER.

This distinguished friend of the common people is in Texas on a lecturing tour and to attend the state populist rally at Ft. Worth. Interviewed he says in yesterday's News that Dallas would be an occeptable point to him for holding the populist National convention next year. He further said:"

"I came to the state on invitation of Judge H. D. Wood of Hunt county to address the populist encampments. I have already spoken at Grand Saline, and will speak at Pecan Gap Aug. 7, Myrtle Springs the 8th, Sherman the 14th, Greenville the 15th, Waco the 16th and Austin the 17th.

"I find the spirit of the populist party equal to what was represented by the press; it is earnest and on the increase. The success of the reform movement largely depends upon the southern states; and industrial emancipation as well. The state of Texas has the same relation to the reform movement that New York has always held to American politics. It has sovereign influence in reform circles everywhere. We think in the north that they have here in Texas a group of reform leaders who are unsurpassed in the United States, and are destined to become famous in the great controversies of this period."

"I am glad to note the independent movement of free silver democrats, as it indicates a disposition to throw off bossism and domination of Wall street. But when they get through with the work of purgation the party will be so divided that it will be unable to carry a single state. This movement will bring them to such friendly relations with the populist movement as to give hope of union of all reform forces next year on a common ticket."

"It is absolutly certain now that the national conventions of the old parties will declare substantially for gold standard. Then the true democratic spirit of the west and south will assert itself and culminate in the greatest political battle this country has ever witnessed."

The two great personalities of our past history, Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson, have so impressed themselves upon the character of the people of the south and west that they can not be enslaved or reduced to serfdom. You see, I rely on the democratic spirit of the country to save it. The democratic party in its organization and management has strayed away from the principles of Jefferson and Jackson. It is dying in power from the head downward just as its old adversary, the whig party, died, and for the same reason. The whig party adopted democratic policies concerning leading issues, of that day, and the leaders of the democratic party have run their boat on the same rock. Its leaders have adopted the republican policy concerning the great issues of the present time, and they can not carry their following with them.

"The populist party can be relied upon to give the country next year a conservative platform and a broad, unobjectionable ticket, and hence I look for a union of all forces."

In reply to a question whether the populist still adhered to government ownership of railroads and the sub-treasury plan, Gen. Weaver said: 'The government ownership of railroads is a cardinal principle of the reform party. The sub-treasury is a matter of detail, and I do not believe in putting details into the platform. The money question is the overshadowing question for the coming campaign, and other questions will have to come up afterwards."

A white man named Derringer went to the county poor farm Saturday evening and died Sunday night, We understand Dr. Gale pronounced his disease small-pox. So again wild rumors are floating about and uselessly alarming the timid, but the truthfulness of the report is not credited by a majority of the people.

"Matron of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcomes my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1892, The inmates had the "LaGrippe," and I was one of the first. Resuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue its occasional use, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me." June 6, 1894. MRS. LAURA C. PHOENIX.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1, 6 bottles for $5, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

BLUE RIDGE NOTES.

Blue Ridge, Tex., Aug. 5 '95.

Editor Democrat:

Every body is about through work in this section of the county and from the number of covered wagons rolling around they are all going to see their wives' kinfolks.

W. M. Warden brought out the surveyor last week and run off a dozen or more dwelling lots, on his land near town and three of them have already been sold. No doubt the others will soon be taken up and houses built on them. So you see our town is still on the boom.

W. A. Smith will begin work on his dwelling this week.

Several wagons have gone to McKinney to day after lumber for the new school building.

Geo. McKelvy, took his singing class, which consisted of all the young people of Blue Ridge, and went to Cross Road to sing for the people there, his object in doing so was to organize a class at that place, but owing to some misunderstanding the appointment was not made known and our Blue Ridge people had it all to themselves.

The Baptist meeting which is to be conducted by Bro. Hardin of Trenton, will begin here Friday night.

Blue Ridge base ball team is to play Merit team at Farmersville, Friday evening.

VERONA VAPORINGS.

Verona, Aug. 5, 1895.

Editor Democrat:

Mr. E. L. Woodall and family, who have been visiting relatives in Louisiana for the past two weeks have returned home. Mrs. Laura Woodall returned with them.

Prof. Bright visited S. S. Stroup last week.

Jasper Woodall is very sick of slow fever.

The Baptists held their protracted meeting at Verona last week. The Methodists will commence Saturday night.

A. J. Aycock and James Anderson will attend the democratic convention at Fort Worth this week.

A number of young people visited Miss Ida Anderson Sunday, and spent a pleasant evening, singing, eating peaches and melons.

The singing at M. N. Stroup's Saturday night was a success.

Mrs. Viney Bounds was thrown from a horse Thursday but not seriously hurt.

Prof. Butler of Writewright one of the teachers in Grayson College, was in our town last week working in the interest of his school.

Mrs. Jane Bounds, of Mississippi, who is visiting friends and relatives in Texas, was given a birthday dinner last week by her sister, Mrs. Louisa Womble. About forty persons were present and the day was enjoyed by all but more especially by the old people. This was Mrs. Bounds seventy-fourth birthday. Her three sisters and one brother, Louisa and Time Womble, Sallie Carson, and T. A. Bailey, of Hickman all met her at Verona and spent the day. This is about the fourth time Mrs. Bounds has visited Texas in the last ten years and she expects it will be the last time as she is getting feeble. It was grand to see those old sisters and brother, who are all more than fifty years, meet again and spend one more day together.

ANNIE LAURIE.

Farmers, we want your trade. As an inducement for it we offer you the highest market prices for your produce and will sell you groceries at rock bottom prices. Rogers & Sherwood.

A grand union political picnic will be given, Saturday, Aug. 17, at Orenduff's Pleasure Resort, (Mallow's Lake). Hon. T. J. Tilson, of Merritt, has accepted an invitation to represent the populists.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

Between 8 and 9 o'clock Monday morning the residence of Mr. T. K. Blewett, on South Wilcox street, was discovered by neighbors to be on fire and the alarm was immediately turned in.

From some reason the fire engine failed to work satisfactorily and the flames soon communicated from the summer kitchen where they originated to the main part of the dwelling which was entirely consumed. Most of the household effects were saved except the bedding and clothing stored in a closet not discovered by rescuers.

The building was valued at about $1300, with $850 insurance in the Phoenix. The household goods were insured in the German of Freeport, Illinois, for about $750.

The beautiful shade trees, persimmons, maple, everbearing mulberries and cedars were ruined by the fire and intense heat besides damage done to surrounding fences.

The department did good work in saving the barn. Mr. Blewitt and family were up in town when the fire started and they are at a loss to know how it originated.

Mr. and Mrs. Blewett desire to to express their thanks to the public, through THE DEMOCRAT, for all favors extended in saving everything possible from the flames and for the several kind offers of houses free of rent until Mr. Blewett can rebuild his home.

It was prescribed by one of physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

DEXON, TEXAS,
MESSRS. LILLIMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
GENTS:—I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured dilicuity of breathing and smothering, palpitation of the heart and relieved me of all pains; one nostril was closed for ten years, now I can breathe through it readily.
I have tried skin doctors on either side for two years, in fact dreaded to see night come; now I feel strong and sound in any position all right.
I am 59 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles; I feel proud I was lucky enough to get P. P. P. and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Comanche.
Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtues of P. P. P. is correct.

BAYLOR FEMALE COLLEGE.

Enters, at its opening the 4th of September, upon the second half of its first century. The thousands of young ladies educated in this institution in the last fifty years have been, and are, among the noblest and most useful women of the state. Baylor (at Belton) is thoroughly equipped. Its teachers are able and trained. All its schools, including Literary, Drawing, Painting, Music and Elocution are unexcelled. Its massive stone structure, with its electric lights, artesian water works and steam heating furnishes a delightful home for 200 young ladies.

Health excellent and all at a cost no greater than that charged by inferior schools.

Editor Democrat:
Considerable sickness in the community but not of a fatal nature.

A goodly number of people went to Dallas to the baseball game yesterday. Nine coaches loaded to the guards passed through here. Many of these passengers were under the influence of liquor.

The Christian people of this land should rise up and condemn baseball playing on the Lord's Day.

Lee Baggett has begun repairing the oil mill, so as to be ready for the season.

A protracted meeting began at the Christian church yesterday, conducted by Elder Patterson of Missouri. It will continue probably for four weeks.

The populist Central club will meet at the school building next Saturday at 1 o'clock. We would urge all pops to be present. A populist club was organized at Mesquite school house on Wednesday night. A membership of 13 whoop-'em-up-boys will keep the flies off the dems. in '96.

PRICKLY ASH, POKE ROOT AND POTASSIUM

Makes Marvelous Cures in Blood Poison Rheumatism and Scrofula

PIMPLES, BLOTCHES AND OLD SORES CATARRH, MALARIA, KIDNEY TROUBLES and DYSPEPSIA

P. P. P. purifies the blood, builds up the weak and debilitated, gives strength to weakened nerves, expels diseases, giving the patient health and happiness where sickness, gloomy feelings and lassitude first prevailed.

For primary, secondary and tertiary syphilis, for blood poisoning, mercurial poison, malaria, dyspepsia, and in all blood and skin diseases, like blotches, pimples, old chronic ulcers, tetter, scald head, boils, erysipelas, eczema—we may say, without fear of contradiction, that P. P. P. is the best blood purifier in the world, and makes positive, speedy and permanent cures in all cases.

Ladies whose systems are poisoned and whose blood is in an impure condition, due to menstrual irregularities, are peculiarly benefited by the wonderful tonic and blood cleansing properties of P. P. P.—Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 14th, 1893. —I can speak in the highest terms of your medicine from my own personal knowledge. I was affected with heart disease, pleurisy and rheumatism for 35 years, was treated by the very best physicians and spent hundreds of dollars, tried every known remedy without finding relief. I have only taken one bottle of your P. P. P., and can cheerfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I can recommend your medicine to all sufferers of the above diseases.
MRS. M. M. YEARY.

MESSRS LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: DEAR SIRS—I bought a bottle of your P. P. P. at Hot Springs, Ark., and it has done me more good than three months' treatment at the Hot Springs. Send three bottles C. O. D.
Respectfully yours,
JAS. M. NEWTON,
Aberdeen, Brown County, O.

Capt. J. D. Johnston.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby testify to the wonderful properties of P. P. P. for eruptions of the skin. I suffered for several years with an unsightly and disagreeable eruption on my face. I tried every known remedy but in vain, until P. P. P. was used, and am now entirely cured.

Skin Cancer Cured.

Testimony from the Mayor of Sequin, Tex.

SEQUIN, TEX., January 14, 1893.
MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great benefit. It purifies the blood and removes all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,

GENERAL NEWS.

CAREFULLY COMPILED FOR THE DEMOCRAT'S READERS.

Dr. Peterson, Ex-State commander of the Texas G. A. R., is dead.

The Christadelphians held a camp meeting in Bell county last week.

Postmaster Neely of Waxahachie is in the Dallas jail. He is short $3800.

A 12 year old girl was ravished by a negro brute at Harrman Ky. Sunday.

The regular annual Van Zant alliance encampment is now in progress at Myrtle Springs.

Otto Burger was run over and killed by a street car in Dallas Sunday.

Jenny Jones and her lover were rowing in the river at Philadelphia, when the latter knocked her over board and let her drown.

A GERMAN POPULIST PAPER.

Any educated German competent to edit and manage a first-class German populist weekly can make satisfactory arrangements by corresponding with Chas. Mierow, San Antonio, Texas. The reform papers will aid such a journal.

POPULIST STATE CONVENTION.

Pennsylvania state populist convention on met July 4, at Williamsport and nominated the following ticket: State Treasurer, Geo. N. Dawson; Judges of the Supreme Court, W. C. Rheem, John W. Stevenson, J. B. Young, J. W. Allison and D. O. Coughlin. The Omaha platform was endorsed and a resolution endorsing Ex-congressman Sibley's course was voted down.

OHIO.

Buckeye populists met in state convention August 1 and 2, at Columbus. Fusion with anybody or any party received a black eye and the Omaha platform reaffirmed. following is the state ticket: Jacob S. Coxey, Gov.; John H. Crofton, Lieut. Gov.; George Harper, Treas.; William Baker, Atty. Gen.; E. D. Stark, supreme judge; William A. Gloyd, public works; Thomas N. Hickman, clerk supreme court.

A MAN BRAINED.

A man was found in the Two Johns saloon at 2:30 this morning who seemed to have been knocked in the head with some heavy instrument. He was removed to the police station, where he seemed to be in a dying condition at 3 o'clock.

He had a large pocketbook on his person, in which were notes and papers, but no money.

From the notes it seemed his name was J. P. F. Jones, from either Nevada or Copeville, Tex. One note for $100 was made in favor of the same, signed J. F. Jones & Son; another for $200, signed D. C. Pardue and W. C. Brenson. These notes were dated at Copeville and one at Nevada. The man was unconscious and was breathing as if he had been drugged.

He was of medium height, heavy built and black hair, brown mustache and chin whiskers, with a deep frown or crease in his forehead. He was dressed in a light suit of clothes.

THE AMBIDEXTROUS POPULIST.

Recent expressions from the chief priests and the Levites of the populist party anent the currency question should convince those who have heretofore been in doubt as to the position of these self-accused reformers regarding the silver question. It should not be inferred that anyone with an idea above the traditional fattening hog has given the leaders of the populist herd credit for sincerety in their solicitude for silver, but it must be confessed that not every man entitled to vote is competent to think. Your Uncle Whiskers of Kansas, courteously referred to as Senator Peffer, is out in a manifesto in which he intimates that free silver or bimetallism in any form is a robust farce. Stumpsucker Ashby, the rare and radiant ass of the Texas contingent of latter-day reformers rushes into print and warns the faithful to keep off the free silver grass, while Bre'r Tracy recently got action on his gas works in an open air test of physical endurance and warned his faithful fledglings to shoo the bimetallic Charybdis off the roost and give the free silver Scylla the horse laugh. Now, no one should suppose that these lippy bellwethers have experienced a change of heart on the money question, for they have not. The fact that they have consented to be honest with themselves and their constituents is the only thing that need puzzle the understanding It is more than likely, though, that these high muck-a-mucks have dispaired of drawing free silver democrats into their little net, and feel that to prosecute their wild goose chase further is useless. It is likely that within six months free silver talk will have become a lost art among the populists, for when snuff is taken at headquarters the sneezing proceeds down the line. The lay member populist is by nature a docile creature. True he will stand on the street corner and bawl and storm at democrats from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof, expectorating a section of lung at every climax, but just let one of their cherished leaders deliver the opinion that beans are no longer beans but coffee instead and coffee they are to the layman and he will swear it.—Grand Saline Sun.

BICKLEY "BLURS" THE SUN.

Rockwall, Tex., July 29, '95.

To The Democrat:

In behalf of all the docile pops: (lambs we are and feed on daisies) we wish to express our appreciation of the high compliments lavished upon us by the multisicous, multiloquous, encyclopedi,—we mean the pyrotechnic man of the Grand Saline Sun, in the above. We take it as a flattering acknowledgment of the rising power and influence of patriotism (populism) in the land: as no ordinary influence would elicit such an extraordinary acknowledgment as the Sun man makes. This air-escape at Grand Saline says:

"Recent expressions from the chief priests and Levites of the populist party anent the currency question should convince those who have heretofore been in doubt as to the position of these self-accused reformers regarding the silver question."

Likewise, recent history in connection with the democratic party should convince all those who have heretofore been in doubt as well as those who have not. As to the position of these self-condemned leaders of late democracy; even if they ever were "given any credit for sincerety in their solicitude for silver," certainly now, after they have kicked the very "stuffin" out of the ball the people have been so long rolling for them—oh, certainly, after they have acknowledged that they were "fools five years ago" and have only "a little more sense now." Certainly, we repeat, these fellows will not longer be given credit for sincerety, except by some one who wishes to bring his credulity below that of a swill sucker. Of course the people cannot trust them longer.

This Grand Saline gas leak says that "No one should suppose that these lippy bellwethers have experienced a change of heart on the money question."

Correct, they have not changed but all the way from "Wayward Willie" and "Slippery Dan," down to "Dodger Q." of Texas, with its athletic executive head, have the rambunctious leaders of the segregating democracy been experiencing a chaege of heart. They have absolutely faced about. Their records show it. They acknowledge it and the fact they do acknowledge it is the only thing that puzzles a pop and it should make even an ass suspicious of them.

No, we are done calling 'beans' 'coffee.' We learned this lesson while in the democratic party.

When you took low tariff snuff we sneezed, but we got "nary" a low tariff; when you took free coinage snuff we sneezed in twenty-nine states, but you demonetized it worse; when you sniffed and sneezed "no more bonds in a time of peace," we all sneezed again and Roschild said "scat!" We are done sneezing. We are done calling high tariff "low tariff. We are done calling interest bearing bonds "legal tender money" We are done calling demonetization "free coinage." We are done calling republican hard times democratic prosperity. We are done going backward, done, done, done. Blow on, thou periphrastic son of the wind, and ease thyself; 'twill do thee good, but see thou do thy self no harm, for we are all on deck.

Spew on, thy geyser-throated, nozzle-tipped orifice of delusion! Spew up thy oozy slime, 'twill only fall back upon thee as a witness in a time of reckoning.

TEXAS AGRICULTURE EXPERIMENT STATIONS.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR.

During the past year six bulletins or reports have been issued from this station, covering lines of Veterinary work, work done by the Horticultural Department, and the Agricultural Departments of the Station. Report was also made upon the experiments conducted for the past season at McKinney and Wichita Falls Sub-Stations.

Bulletin No. 30, treating of glanders experiment, tuberculin tests, lumpy jaw of cattle, notes on animal parasites, Texas fever experiment, and device for destroying ticks, comprising 21 pages, was supplied by the Veterinary Department.

Bulletin No. 31, treating of insects injurious to stored grain, 9, pages, was supplied by the Horticultural Department.

Bulletin No. 32, treating of varieties of plums, injurious fungi and insects, varieties of apricots, and varieties of Japan persimmons, 23 pages, supplied by the Horticultural Department.

Bulletin No. 33, an experiment in feeding milk cows various rations, containing 23 pages, was supplied by the Agricultural Department.

Bulletin No. 34, giving the results of field experiments at McKinney Sub-Station and at Wichita Falls Sub-Station, and with field experiments at the main Station, consisting of 71 pages, supplied by the Agricultural Department.

We have had many pleasant assurances during the past year that these publications have largely met the demand of the farming element who desired information upon many lines of work connected with crop culture, stockraising, and horticultural work.

In addition to our regular publications, the Station has issued once each quarter a copy of "Press Notes," which were supplied to all of the newspapers published in this state, for the purpose of giving them fresh matter in convenient form for reproduction, concerning the work of this Experiment Station in all of its lines. I have had advice from more than one hundred of the State papers to the effect that they use more or less of this matter from time to time. These Press Reports in no way take the place of our regular publications in bulletin or pamphlet form, but supply a felt demand by the Station workers for contributions to the State press which can hardly be complied with in any other manner.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES.

It has been the privilege of several members of the Station staff to be present, by invitation, at farmers' institutes and county fairs in the State, and each occasion proved an inspiration. The discussion by the members of the Station staff at these meetings were well received, and met the approval of those present. Until our Station can systematize its farmers' institutes work somewhat, it will be impossible for us to do the greatest possible service to the people in this respect. I am pleased to say that it is now well understood by the people interested in these matters that the members of the Station staff hold themselves in readiness to assist in all such exercises when an invitation is presented in time. All such invitations of the past year have been accepted by our staff. I consider this work one of the most important that can now be performed by the Station officers, and would be pleased to see a greater interest taken by the people in the matter of farmers' institutes throughout the State.

WORK UNDER WAY.

I desire to call especial attention to the reports of head of departments found in the pages following, which give a very clear account of the experiments that are planned and under way, upon which results may be expected within the next twelve months. It is evident that much of this work is of a highly important character, and should be prosecutto the fullest possible extent. While the lines covered in these various experiments are of much importance, yet they are far from exhausting the field of experimental science applied to Texas conditions. We find that it is impossible, with our present force, to attempt much important work which is being called for just now by the people of the State. It is quite certain that in the near future the number of lines of work followed by the Station and the number of publications issued will be largely increased over those of the past few years.

SUB-STATIONS.

I take especial pleasure in calling your attention to that part of Bulletin No. 34 reporting the results of experiments conducted at McKinney and at Wichita Falls Sub-Stations with wheat, corn, cotton, grasses, and manures.

The exceptional yield of some of the varieties of wheat and oats at both places give strong promise that the seed wheat and oats of these sections can be materially improved by a change to some of the new varieties now giving best results in our tests. The conditions at both Wichita Falls and McKinney were unfavorable to experimental work in cotton during the past season, so that a large number of varieties of cotton planted at both places could not be relied upon, and for this reason were not published.

Experiments with fertilizers, however, on corn and cotton gave consistent results, and with another year's work will do much toward settling the problem of artificial manure with these two crops. One of the most important experiments reported upon is that grasses and forage plants at these two stations.

In the fall of 1894 we succeeded in establishing a permanent substation at Beeville, Bee county, upon a tract of 151 acres of land which was deeded to the State for this purpose. We are now prepared to conduct experiments at that place with various field crops and fertilizers, and to carry on experiments in testing the different varieties of orchard fruits, vegetables, and manures for these. The subject of irrigation in that section will be made a matter of experiments to test the amount of water required per acre for certain crops, and other points of importance relating to irrigation work in South Texas. This is the only station thus far located upon which permanent orchard work could be attempted, because all of our contracts at the other stations are but temporary.

FARMERS' TESTS.

During the past year we have sent out assorted lots of seeds to a large number of reliable farmers in various parts of the State for trial, with necessary instructions for their management and control. In many cases the test will be of great value to the community in which the test is made. Arrangements have been made with the Department of Agriculture at Washington this season by which we can supply more than one hundred farmers in the State with various seeds of experimental value, upon which reports will be made during the fall of 1895.

In doing the work of the past year I am convinced that substantial progress has been made in original investigation, methods of publication, and extending our field experiments by means of sub-stations in such ways that the results can not fail to be helpful to the great mass of our people.

I look forward to the work of the coming year with much hope, and confidence that it will be an improvement upon the last.

I am most respectfully yours,
J. H. CONNELL,
Director.

Many a young man spends time cultivating a mustache that should be put in cultivating a patch of corn.

THE QUEEN AND CRESCENT ROUTE TO CHICKAMAUGA.

Veterans and their friends will all want to attend the great National Park dedication at Chickamauga this fall. It will be a notable event.

Do you want to know how to make the trip and what you'll see when you reach the journey's end? Write to W. C. Rinearson, G. P. A. of the Queen and Crescent Route, Cincinnati Illustrated and descriptive matter upon application.

The Queen and Crescent Route to Chattanooga is the best line, and has the reputation of unequalled service of handsome trains of palace day coaches and through sleepers from New Orleans Meridian, Shreveport, Vicksburg and Birmingham to Chattanooga. Quick schedules and interesting scenery on route help to make the Queen and Crescent the Southern route par excellence.

WHEN DOCTORS AND HOSPITALS FAILED.

DALLAS, TEX., April 4, 1895.—This is to certify that for the last eight or nine years I have been sorely afflicted with a most severe bowel and rectal trouble, which also produced a complicated condition of the uterus and kidneys. I was four months in the Dallas hospital and was treated at different times by at least a dozen different physicians and was operated on four times, but all to no avail. I continued to grow worse until I had lost hope of recovery, but thank God a lady friend advised me to try Dr. McDowell's Family Medicines. I had used only one bottle of the La Creole Blood Purifier and one box of Rabbit Brain Ointment when I found I was improving fast. I have used six bottles of the La Creole and about the same number of the salve and Eel Oil, and I positively could not be paid enough money to be placed back in the same position I was in when I commenced the use of the medicine.

My husband was attacked with a severe case of Grippe and had a severe cold and fever. He was so bad that we thought he could not recover, but he concluded to try McDowell's Hot Drops and Eel Oil and in a few days was able to resume his work. MRS. HATTIE DAVIS, 317 Elm Street.
